

Michigan has made the first move in the nation to develop a state defense council. Proposed to smooth over the transition from civilian production, the council would attempt to organize the economic potential.

For the first time Gov. Williams' corporation tax proposal has reached the floor of the state senate. The governor charged as Senator George Higgins, said in a hearing, "what do you want, a corporation tax (Williams baby) or my manufacturer's process tax?"

The process tax would put a three percent levy on all machinery purchased which does not become a component part of the article manufactured. Manufacturers' agents steamed during the hearing. Observers have already buried the bill. But the hearing clearly was a Williams' victory—without a Democrat present!

The Vandenberg senatorial seat is still a big question mark. In Washington, D. C., the seers are asking Michigan prognosticators what is to happen—and in Michigan we look to Washington for the word. And should the veteran Grand Rapids legislator resign before 1952, things really will be in a tizzy.

While the draft continues to take more of our young people, Pontiac's negro sage, 107-year-old Joe Cloves, says, "There wouldn't be no trouble in Korea if folks would do more prayin' and lovin'." He's one of eight Civil War Veterans still alive. He should know.

Washington has said it was a "regional office mistake" when it was revealed that bedridden war veterans were "taken to" in an attempt to get them to apply for TB hospitalization in other states. Says Guy F. Palmer, manager of the Detroit regional office, "It was NOT a mistake in this office." And he produced the orders—all stemming from the national capital—telling him to move patients.

Michigan, of course, has the same TB housing problem as most other states. Although the building program "taken to" the state has some 300 patients still in private homes because there are no beds in the hospitals.

A budget pinch is the reason given for closing 13 Michigan veterans administration contact offices. Offices were shut down in Battle Creek, Flint, Jackson, Lansing, Muskegon Heights, Saginaw, Escanaba, Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo, St. Joseph, Marquette, Sault Ste. Marie and Traverse City.

Following another round of wage increase demands and the subsequent freezing thereon, Walter P. Reuther, president of the U. A. W. (C. I. O.), says that America must wage an "all out battle" to defeat world Communism. He also says, however, that we should build adequate military strength.

North Branch

J. T. Stillwagon wishes to inform all interested parties a letter received from Mrs. Lynn Allen, notifying him of the suggestion by the Department of Conservation to get the date of the opening of trout season back for two weeks or a month. Since this is a resort area all business places as well as cabin owners should be interested and act accordingly.

Anyone that has magazines or comic books suitable for sending overseas, please leave them at the North Branch Grocery. Mrs. Wade informs us that Jack would very much like to receive some reading material and any contribution will be appreciated by his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Pochelon and Julie were week end guests at the Les Jacksons last week end. Mrs. J. E. Kellogg, Mrs. Paul Crawford, Mrs. Clayton Kellogg, Glenda, Charley and Bob Kellogg attended the funeral services of their grandson and nephew, Lyle Bradford, in Eaton Rapids on Thursday last. Lyle's mother will be remembered as Clara Kellogg Bradford. Mrs. J. E. Kellogg remained at the Bradford home for a while later going to Detroit and Saginaw to visit members of her family before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Doron were guests of Mrs. Jean Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. O'Connor on Saturday evening. Marian and Virginia O'Connor, Barbara Johnson and Glenda Kellogg attended a youth meeting in Grayling on Saturday night.

The North Branch neighbors had their weekly community sing at the Stillwagon home. There were several new ones there and a nice evening of entertainment and refreshments was enjoyed by all.

This community is invited to attend the box social to be held at Red Oak on Saturday evening, February 10, to benefit the 4-H Club there. This is a very worthwhile endeavor and we know that all that possibly can will help to support such a good cause.

Mrs. Kinsell's daughter and family came to help her celebrate her birthday on February 1. Happy birthday Mrs. Kinsell. Birthdays getting go. Mrs. Art O'Connor, too, who is one year older February 8.

Former Sheriff Dies In Bay City

Funeral services were held at 2 P. M. Monday in Bay City for Jess E. Bobenmoyer, 67, former Crawford County Sheriff, who passed away Saturday morning while on his way to work of an heart attack.

According to Bay County Coroner William A. Trahan, the heart attack was brought on by over exertion while shoveling snow that morning. Mr. Bobenmoyer was found dead in his car at Thirty-sixth and Harrison Streets and death was believed to have occurred at about 7 o'clock.

Resident of Bay City for 10 years, he was an employee of the Habitant Shop. He was born in Celina, Ohio, August 19, 1883. Surviving are his widow, Anna; a daughter, Mrs. Ernest Essex of Bay City; four sons, Donald Bobenmoyer of Grayling, Louis Currier of Detroit, Lawson Currier of Washington, D. C., and John Arnett of Los Angeles, Calif., a brother, Henry of Celina; and four grandchildren.

P. T. A. To Hold Bake Sale On February 16th

At its January meeting held Wednesday evening the P. T. A. members decided to hold a bake sale to raise funds for its regular expenses.

The Peterson Hardware has graciously consented to allow us space for the Bake Sale, and Friday, Feb. 16th has been set as the date.

All members (and all those interested in the P. T. A., whether a member or not) are requested to furnish for the sale, a large variety of good things: baked beans, bread, rolls, pies, cakes, cookies, and etc. So plan to shop with us that date.

There were about fifty present for the meeting, and following the business session the room count was held. The 3rd and 9th grades were tied, so $1.00 was paid to each grade. Mr. Christian presented David Olsen in a trumpet solo accompanied by Joan Anderson at the piano. The number was "Melody in F" which was very well received.

We were sorry that the other students Mr. Christian had planned on presenting were unable to attend due to illness.

Trooper Donner who had planned to speak on "Safety" was unable to be present. We hope to hear him at some other time.

A very nice lunch of cherry pie and coffee was served in the Home Ec. room by a committee composed of Mrs. Margaret Hall, Chairman, and Mrs. Willard Cornell. Mrs. Robt. Strong, Mrs. Jos. Cinciala, Mrs. Oscar Goss, Mrs. Nyland Houghton, Mrs. Clayton McDonnell, Mrs. Robt. Meeker, Mrs. Harold Long, Mrs. Wm. Gollnick, Mrs. Art Parkinson, Mrs. Ralph Milliken, Mrs. Clifford Malloy, Mrs. Marie Herrick, Mrs. Lillian Dorneyer, and Mrs. Robt. LaMotte.

Our February meeting is to be held in the South Side School, and we understand that school is planning entertainment for the meeting. This meeting will be held Tuesday, Feb. 27th, rather than on the last Wed. of the month as is usual. We have had some fine meetings with large attendance at this school in the past. So let's all plan to attend on Feb. 27th and better that record.

Mrs. Fred Lamm
Publicity Chairman

Kiwanis Club

Notes

Mrs. Louise Carpenter of Michigan State College was the speaker introduced at the regular weekly meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Grayling held Monday evening at the Lone Pine Inn by William Joseph, program chairman.

Mrs. Carpenter gave a very interesting talk on "World Understanding" and told of the efforts made at MSC to promote the understanding between countries.

At Michigan State this year are students from 97 different countries. The continuing education service of the college takes small groups of these students into the smaller communities of Michigan to spend week ends where they may get a real touch of the American way of life. These groups attend church, meetings and anything that happens to be going on in the community in which they are visiting.

The speaker told several stories about the formation of ideas by the students after a visit to an American community. She added that each of these students upon a return to their native land is really a good will ambassador for our country.

Michael Brady Receives Degree

Michael Brady received his Bachelor of Science degree from Wayne University in exercises held at the University last Friday. He had majored in geology. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Brady were present for the exercises. Michael plans to return to school for post graduate work to earn his Masters degree.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schlabbe are spending the week in Lansing on business.

Seek To Windup March of Dimes

Campaign Director Willard Cornell of the March of Dimes for the Crawford County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis today requested that all collectors for the fund windup their collections and turn in their money and reports.

The coin collectors that have been on the counters of downtown business houses have been picked up this week. Director Cornell said in announcing that every effort was being made to officially close the drive and prepare a detailed statement for publication that would show the amount raised, where it came from and from what collecting agent or agency.

Indies Defeat Mesick All Stars

The Grayling Independents defeated a Mesick All Star aggregation here last Wednesday evening by a 71 to 56 score and are traveling to Mesick tonight to complete a home and home game arrangement.

The All Stars presented a very fine team but were short their regular center who was unable to make the trip. The loss of this player undoubtedly slowed up the play of the Mesick team who are expected to give the Grayling team a much rougher time of it tonight. The invaders were led in scoring by Paulus with 19 points and Constance, former Western Michigan College star with 13.

Ross Thompson with 23 points paced the Indies with Ed Chalker adding 14, Sandy Thompson 13, Ed Smith 11 and Roger Giegling 10. Bob Smock and Howard Hatfield, both saw action for Grayling but did not crack into the scoring column.

Grayling built up a slight edge in the first period and advanced further during the second quarter when Coach Willard Cornell of the Indies started to substitute. Mesick took advantage and drew up very close to Grayling as the half ended. The Indies, however, had little trouble in again forging ahead in the second half.

Crawford County on Starvation Diet

Mrs. Loleta D. Eyan, State Librarian and president-elect of the American Library Association, said today that Crawford County is on a mental starvation diet. She went on to explain that her statement is based on a recent study conducted by the Michigan State Library as to the number of books per resident for each of Michigan's 83 counties. Of the 83 counties surveyed, 76 have inadequate food for the mind, 5 counties—Ansonia, Keweenaw, Lake, Luce and Montcalm—are without any mental nourishment, they have no libraries at all.

"According to the American Library Association's minimum standards for counties of Crawford's size, there should be 3 books per capita. Crawford County has only 3-5 book per capita," said Mrs. Eyan. "An inadequacy in books is certainly mental starvation. A solution to Crawford County's diet problem is an adjustment in the present State Grants to Public Libraries. These state allotments have been based on 1940 population figures. Since then the state has increased by almost 1,000,000 new residents. Also the dollar has shrunk to 50% of its value."

"In these days of uncertainty," Mrs. Eyan went on to say, "it is necessary for libraries to furnish food for the mind, good books that serve the need of all residents; practical books of how to do and what to do, as well as books of faith and hope. Unless an adjustment is made of the present State Grants to Public Libraries, Crawford County will continue on its starvation diet."

The Michigan State Board for Libraries is asking the State Legislature for $899,421 in order that more regional and county libraries may be established and local libraries better supplied. This sum is merely an adjustment to new population figures and decrease in the dollar value.

Episcopal Diocese Holds Convention

The 118th annual convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan and Woman's Auxiliary was held at St. Paul's Cathedral, Detroit last Tuesday and Wednesday. The Right Rev. Henry Knox Sherill was the principal speaker. There were 1800 in attendance.

A book "Were You There When They Crucified My Lord?" written by Rev. Harold E. Wagner of St. Mark's Church who was present at the convention, will run in the Detroit Free Press through Lent. Present at the convention from Grayling were Mrs. Emil Nedderer and Mrs. Robert Welsh.

CHARRON-CHERVEN WED ON SATURDAY

Miss Margaret Charron of Saginaw, daughter of Albert Charron became the bride of Andrew Cherven of Saginaw, son of Mrs. Andrew Cherven of Roscommon on Saturday, February 3rd.

The double ring ceremony was performed at St. Mary's Church at 9:30 A. M. before an altar graced with gladiolas and snapdragons. The Rev. Fr. John Breitenstein officiated in the presence of forty guests. Special music was furnished by St. Mary's choir. Miss Greta Rasmussen presided at the organ.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a street length dress of white winter wool and green accessories. Her flowers were yellow roses and white carnations. Miss Louise Kasper as bridesmaid wore a pink wool crepe ensemble and black accessories and carried yellow carnations and white roses.

Michael Cherven of Roscommon was best man for his brother.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held at Wirt's Lone Pine Inn. Table decorations included cedar boughs and white tapers in birch holders. The three tiered white wedding cake was encircled with salmon colored gladioli and topped with yellow roses.

The newlyweds will make their home in Saginaw following their honeymoon. The bride is attending school, where she is studying to be a laboratory technician and the groom is a pharmacist.

Eight Winter Queens Already In Miss Michigan Contest

Expect As Many As 6 More To Enter

With eight Winter Queens entered and as many as six more expected to enter the Miss Michigan Snow Queen contest, the oldest and most famous Michigan Winter Sports Carnival at Grayling will open bigger and better than ever this Friday.

Winter, after taking a brief respite on Monday seemed to be back in the snow and cold groove and promised nearly perfect weather for the Carnival. Park Manager A. J. "Tony" Nelson and his crew have the park in tip top shape and Carnival General Chairman Alfred J. "Bud" Sorenson and his committees have the carnival events well whipped into line.

Serving as welcoming hostess to the visiting queens will be Grayling Queen Betty Jean Mathewson, 17-year-old blonde high school senior and assisting her during the various ceremonies will be her court of Joan Bond, Patricia Stephan, Barbara Klein, Joan Simpson, Elaine Tinker, Helen Stephan, Marguerite LaMotte and Phyllis Ziebell. Also slated to be here to relinquish her crown to her chosen successor will be the 1950 Miss Michigan Snow Queen, Miss Josephine Bailey of West Branch.

Other queens whose entry blanks have been received are Rosemary Benham, 16, of Pontiac; Audrey Mowrey, 17, of Lewiston; Elaine Reno, 17, of Pinconning; Rosaline Sappington, 17, of West Branch; Yvonne Torka, 17, of Saginaw; Pauline Carrier, 15, of Cheboygan and Shirley Phillips, 18, of Oscoda. Queens may also attend from East Tawas, City, Roscommon and Houghton Lake. If all of the queens respond, it will make a total entry blank of fourteen.

The 1951 Miss Michigan will be selected by a panel of judges at the Queen's Banquet scheduled to be held at the Shoppenagons Inn at 7 P. M. Saturday evening. She will be presented at the annual Queen's Ball Saturday night at 10:30 at the Grayling High School gym by Glenn MacDonald, editor of the Bay City Times. Michigan Memorial Church Now

Rev. R. C. Puffer spent from Sunday until Thursday last week in Bay City assisting the pastor of the Freemont Avenue Church there and preaching each evening in an Evangelistic campaign.

A number of churches of that area participated with the result of four hundred confessions of faith and seventy-one transfers of church letters. A similar campaign will be held in the Grayling area at a later date.

Rev. Puffer expects to take a group of girls who are interested in making nursing their career, to Bronson Hospital, Kalamazoo, on February 17. This necessitates the postponement of the Junior Youth Fellowship roller skating party which had been planned for that day.

Tuesday evening a committee group met at the church to discuss men's work in the church. A joint meeting of the Youth Fellowship committees were to meet at the parsonage on Wednesday evening.

Woman's Club

Mrs. Esbern Olson was hostess to the Woman's Club on February 5, 1951. A brief business meeting was held. Members were reminded of the Feb. 12th open meeting at the Bear Archery Co. Husbands and friends are invited to this tour of the company to be conducted by Mr. Fred Bear. Films are to be shown also.

A Hedda Hopper Hat Contest will be held at the home of Mrs. Leonard Allison for the meeting of February 19th. Prizes will be awarded. Election of officers will be announced. This is to be a social meeting.

The guest speaker, Mrs. Louise Carpenter from the Continuing Education Department of Michigan State College, gave a most absorbing account in her topic "Adventures in World Understanding." Students from 35 countries are enrolled in her class. These students volunteer for the group visits to various communities to learn the facts of American life and the typical Mr. and Mrs. Average American. These visits are very enlightening to both the students and our own citizens. Natives of Turkey, Germany, Pakistan, the Netherlands and Korea are represented. The groups through the Michigan State College are integrated into the daily life of a community on week end visits. During these visits, the foreign students participate in any activity which is a normal part of the community and live with the citizens in their homes. This enables both the students and the Americans to informally discuss the customs and manner of living of both. This can result in promoting a greater understanding among peoples of the world for the personalities that make up the American public and the quality recognized in our armed force abroad which is called the "Yankee spirit."

Mrs. Carpenter and the staff of the Continuing Education Department correspond with the students when they return to their native lands. Without exception, the students serve as good will ambassadors for the United States.

Foreign Policy Debate

There is one thing about the powerful speech which Herbert Hoover made on December 20th on which everyone can agree—it was the fuse which set off the most comprehensive and searching debate on foreign policy which this country has seen in a long time. It inspired a tremendous flood of mail to members of Congress and other key government officials, and the great bulk of the writers, it is reliably reported from the capital, approved of all or most of the ex-President's premises.

Senator Taft, who is now really justifying his title of "Mr. Republican," followed this up with two major speeches—one on the floor of the Senate, the other before the National Press Club. Mr. Taft is not in 100 per cent accord with Mr. Hoover—they differ on the question of just how vital Europe is to the defense of this hemisphere—but he goes with him most of the way. Both men are for building up the air force and the navy to the limit, but they see no need for ground forces of the size desired by the Administration. Both think that Europe has been derelict in looking out for her own military security. Both are convinced that we can't save the free world by ourselves. And Mr. Taft made one very compelling point in discussing the shipment of American supplies and troops to the Atlantic Pact powers. In effect, he said that one of two things will happen in Europe—either Russia will go to war or she will not. In the first event, he went on, the Kremlin will certainly not wait until a powerful force has been organized, trained and equipped to fight against her. She will move while Western Europe is virtually powerless. In the second event—that is, if Russia does not intend war—there is not need for mobilization on a vast level.

Be that as it may, the Hoover-Taft speeches undoubtedly forced Mr. Truman to make some changes in his State of the Union message. By implication, it was a reply to their position.

Potent in Price Appeal—It's the 1951 BUICK SPECIAL!

HERE is good news for folks with a shrewd eye for what their dollars will buy.

Here is a tidy traveler that defies the upward trend of costs—proudly wears a 1951 price tag like that which zoomed last year's SPECIAL into popularity so great that it put a crimp in "the low-priced three."

Take our word for it, this is every inch and ounce a Buick—Buick-featured, Buick-designed, Buick-built from the ground up—but literally the newest thing on wheels.

The sturdy and ample body is new. The high-strength frame is new. The power is new to the SPECIAL, which now has the thrifty F-263 engine that first made its name in the SUPER, and here delivers 120 horsepower with standard transmission—128 with Dynaflo Drive.*

It's a Buick with less weight and more power—and that spells a pair of new thrills for you. There's a performance thrill such as you've never enjoyed in the SPECIAL—plus a handsome gas-saving into the bargain.

We'll make a prediction now as to what title folks will give it, once they get it out on the road.

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

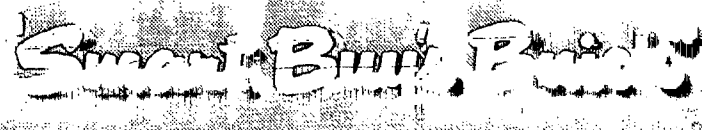

That title in three words, will be: "Thriftiest Buick Yet!"

Better hurry around to your Buick dealer's and look this marvel over. We'll give you another prediction—which is:

Kalkaska Trout Event Set For April 27-28-29

The National Trout Festival Ass. held their Annual meeting and election Sunday at the Kalkaska Hotel.

The following officers were elected, Dr. A. E. Edgerton President, Bernard Ciesek Vice-President, and two directors Lloyd Denton and John Shoemaker.

Plans for the 15th Annual National Trout Festival were discussed and the date set as April 27-28-29, 1951 at Kalkaska, Michigan.

Several new stunts are planned and extra events will be on in fishing contests. Over a thousand dollars will be given in prizes.

The National Trout Festival is sponsored by different Civic groups in Kalkaska County and each year the Festival has grown until at least four months are required to prepare for the event.

With 10 trout lakes and 256 miles of trout streams in Kalkaska County this event annually brings 12,000 to 15,000 fishermen and visitors to Kalkaska.

As recently as two centuries ago 200 crimes were punishable by death under English law.

Petoskey News Item Of Interest Here

WITH X CORPS IN KOREA—With all due respect to a great delivery service, the men of the adjutant general's section of General Almond's X Corps think they can show Western Union a whole bag of tricks when it comes to this courier service.

In fact, the AG GIs have carried messages virtually by every known means of transportation—tanks, half-tracks, jeeps and sampan—including your old standby, the bicycle.

Courier service via tank is a lot more dangerous than dodging vehicular traffic on Petoskey's Mitchell street, according to Cpl. Thomas J. Yoder of Petoskey.

Yoder is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Yoder of 510 Petoskey street. Corporal Yoder helped make X Corps courier service what it is today.

During the Inchon-Seoul invasion by X Corps troops last September, he hopped aboard an Armored Corp tank while delivering official messages to the front and found himself in the midst of a furious tank fight. But in spite of the raging battle being fought around him, the messages were delivered.

"I had to use a Korean sampan for my return trip to headquarters," he recalled. "We were operating from a Liberty ship in the Inchon harbor."

When the occasion demands, the AG section utilizes the first mode of transportation available. A helicopter was pressed into the courier service when Lt. James C. Godsey, of Amarillo, Texas, noticed the plane's passenger seat was unoccupied.

But the AG personnel still chuckle when they remember how Yoder was found floating in the harbor at Inchon on a native-made raft.

State Deer Herd In Danger

Unless the winter breaks early this year, the Michigan deer herd will have larger losses than last season, judging from latest conservation department field reports.

Upper peninsular deer, although restricted to the yards, are getting along fairly well. But lower peninsular whitetails, especially younger ones, appear to be feeling the adverse effects of the more severe winter. Reports of starved deer are increasing in the Mio district and losses are expected in the Traverse City district. Game men in the Baldwin and Gladwin areas file similar reports.

Above the Straits snow depth ranges from 12 to as high as 3.4 feet in the Baraga district. In the northern lower peninsula the range is from .6 of a foot to over two feet in the Traverse City district.

Temperature has dipped as low as 47 degrees below zero in the Baraga district.

Evidence that a deer herd too large for its food supply means bucks with shorter horns—and consequently fewer legal hunting targets—is revealed in a study completed by C. W. Severinghaus, New York state expert.

On a tour of Michigan deer yards with Michigan game men Severinghaus disclosed that 50 percent of the year and a half old deer in the critical New York Adirondack region had less than three-inch spikes. This region is too heavily browsed whitetail range, the same as is the area in Michigan running from Alpena to Gaylord to Houghton Lake to East Tawas.

According to his study, 31 percent of the bucks had more than three-inch horns, 15 percent had racks of three to five points and four percent possessed racks with six to eight points. If the population was not too large for its food supply, he noted, some of these males would have grown 12-point racks.

Severinghaus' research indicated a different story on same age deer in western New York. There, as in some of the better Upper Michigan deer territory, for example, an abundance of natural browse exists even in the winter. None of the year and a half old bucks examined had less than three-inch horns and only 14 percent had spikes which were longer. The rest of the deer had racks—43 percent with three to five points, 40 percent with six to eight points and three percent with nine to 13 points.

Danish Hospital Ship 'Jutlandia' Sails For Korea

Copenhagen.—As part of Denmark's contribution to the United Nations effort in Korea, the hospital ship 'Jutlandia' is now on its way to Korea where it will report for duty to the United Command about March 1.

It took Danish shipyards several months at a cost to the Danish Government of two and one half million dollars to turn the former transatlantic liner into a modern, floating hospital, ready to deal with almost any emergency.

The 'Jutlandia' formed a part of the Danish East Asiatic Company's fleet and had been employed in direct service between Copenhagen and New York until the Danish Government decided to charter and refit it for service in Korea. With a gross tonnage of 8,500 tons it is considered one of the best ships in Denmark's commercial service.

The transition of cargo holds into hospital wards gives the ship a total capacity of 200 patients and with additional emergency berths it can accommodate up to 400 in-patients. The total medical staff aboard numbers 100 persons and it takes a crew of 100 to keep the ship going.

The 'Jutlandia' departed from Copenhagen last month after three flags were hoisted upon its mast: the Danish national flag, the 'Dannebrog'; the flag of the International Red Cross; and the United Nations flag. Dedication services were held the day before at which King Frederik IX and Queen Ingrid attended together with the medical staff and crew of the ship and many of their relatives.

Blue Wins This "Hunt"

Cappy Miller's coon dogs—except for one of them, Old Blue—are about the finest hounds in the county. Blue's too friendly and easy-going to care much about hunting. He doesn't act the way we think a good dog should, so we figured he'd never amount to much.

But a fellow comes around Saturday looking for a good dog to photograph for some advertising. And the dog he picks is Blue! Says Blue's happy, friendly face is just the one to attract people's attention. So Cappy gets more money for that picture than his other dogs will ever take in hunt prizes.

From where I sit, that should teach us not to look down on humans, when they act differently than we think they should. For instance, maybe you think sea goes best with food. O.K.—but don't size up wrong the man who enjoys a bottle of beer at mealtime.

Like Blue, I guess we're all "different" in one way or another—but that doesn't mean we don't have our good points, too!
